"...your throne shall stand firm forever."

Because Christmas is always observed on December 25, the Season of Advent varies in length: this year, it is as brief as it can be, with four Sundays but only three full weeks. In just a few hours, we will be celebrating the Feast of the Nativity of the Lord and, as a practical matter of dealing with a foreshortened Advent, in many ways the church is 'dressed' for Christmas already. It takes some mental effort to hold onto the spirit of Advent when Christmas looms so large in our imaginations. The frequently-heard phrase, 'Wait for it...wait for it…', is most appropriate in the final hours of this Fourth Sunday of Advent: it is a time for savoring our anticipation of the Gift that Christmas celebrates—the fulfillment of God's promise of a Savior, in the birth, at "Bethlehem of Judea", of Jesus, Whom we recognize as Christ, 'the Anointed One'. The Scriptures this Sunday are helpful for strengthening our Advent consciousness. We hear of King David's intention to 'build a house' or temple worthy of being inhabited by the Ark of God's Covenant. At first, his plan is encouraged by the Prophet Nathan, until God Himself sets things straight. David has forgotten that he owes his success and eminence to God, Who chose him, a lowly shepherd, to be king and commander of God's People. God has not asked for an earthly temple, which might add to the luster of David's royal city and burnish his reputation, but which is of no consequence to God. Nathan is sent back to David, to remind him of God's sovereignty and inform him that it is God Who "will establish a house for you." David's 'house' will be not a physical structure but his lineage, and of that line the Messiah will be born. It is in that Royal Son that David's kingdom "shall endure forever." It is hope in God's Promise that looks to its fulfillment in the Birth of Jesus. He will be a king unlike any other—Whose rule will be as the humble Servant of God, shepherding His People.

Our special companion in the closing hours of Advent is the Blessed Virgin Mary, contemplating in the silence of her heart the mysterious workings of God's grace. Her own humility in placing her life at the service of God's plan is the result of her unique preservation from the self-centeredness that is the legacy of the Original Sin. "Full of grace", Mary responds with open heart and will to God's invitation, becoming the 'new Eve' as mother of the Savior and, through Him, as mother of all those born to new life in Him. With her kinswoman Elizabeth, rapt in wonder at the miracle of her own conception of the child who will be John the Baptist, Mary awaits the Birth of her Son in inexpressible peace. May we join with her in grateful prayer as we make our last-minute preparations for Christmas.

To all our parishioners, neighbors and friends, I offer heartfelt good wishes for a blessed and happy Christmas, and to all who have again devoted their time, talents and energy to assure us of a beautiful celebration, my deep thanks. God love you!

Msgr. Tim Shugrue

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!" (Luke 1:28) Faith is a gift from God. Take time in silence and thank Him for all the gifts He has given you. Try to set aside any anger or resentment you have and really open your heart to receive the gift of God's mercy and forgiveness. We can't give what we don't have. We need to receive God's mercy and forgiveness first before we can give it to others.

MEMORIAL DONATIONS - We are accepting Memorial Donations for flowers for the Altar area, the Candles, Bread & Wine used for the Liturgies, and the weekly Sanctuary Candle. These items may be donated in memory of someone or to mark a special occasion. A donation of $10 is suggested for the candles, bread & wine and sanctuary candle, and a donation of $40 is suggested for the weekly flowers. (MEMORIAL CARDS ARE AVAILABLE FOR THESE DONATIONS.) ALSO, as we face the need to replace various items for liturgical use, we are happy to arrange for memorials of deceased loved ones. Call the Parish Office.

Memorial Gifts for the Week of December 24, 2017
Bread & Wine: in memory of Linda Symczak
Sanctuary Candle: in memory of Ralph Leary
Altar Candles: in memory of Maryia & John Marshak

LET US OFFER PRAYERS……for those who have gone home to the Lord, and especially:

Mary Lou Lyons,
Rose Krako Helfrich

May all our deceased loved ones rest in peace.

ANNUAL APPEAL PLEDGES DUE

We thank all who have donated or made a pledge to the 2017 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, Sharing God's Blessings. The deadline for pledges to be redeemed so as to count toward our goal is December 31. If you have not already done so, please try to fulfill your pledge by that date, to help St. Michael's do its part to support the ministries and apostolates of the Archdiocese that benefit all its people and our neighbors in need. Cardinal Tobin has defined Stewardship as "what we do with what we have, when we believe in God." Thank you for joining your brothers and sisters in Sharing God's Blessings.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A CATHOLIC?

Anyone interested in learning about being a baptized member of the Catholic Church (or who has been baptized and wants to receive First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation) is invited to call the Parish Office for more information (908-276-0360). Please pass this information along to anyone you think might be interested.

THANK YOU! ….

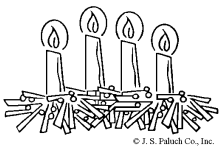
…. to all who made our December Book Fair a great success. I would especially like to thank the Book Fair volunteers — it could not have been done without you. The Book Fair would not have been as successful or as cheerful. We are truly blessed. Thanks again! Maria Singer, Library - SMS

MORNING OF HEALING: for Perinatal Loss

The Offices of Family & Respect Life are offering a Morning of Healing to support families who have experienced the loss of a child due to miscarriage, stillbirth or neo-natal death. All parents, siblings, grandparents and others who are affected by the loss of a baby, either recently or long ago, are invited to attend on Saturday, February 17, 2018, 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at St.Thomas the Apostle Church, 60 Byrd Ave., Bloomfield, N.J. Agenda includes: presentations on topics specific to perinatal loss, small group discussions, a memorial service, resources, and fellowship. Lunch and refreshments provided. Free of charge and babysitting is provided. Must register online at: http://Events.rcan.org/PerinatalLoss/

ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL FESTIVAL

...The Scholarship Fund for Inner-City Children, which provides partial tuition scholarships for low-income students Grades K-12 to attend Catholic schools, will hold its 15th annual High School Basketball Festival on Sunday, January 7, 2018 at Kean University, Union. For complete game times and information on ordering tickets, please visit www.sfichoops.com or call 973-497-4278.



YOUTH MINISTRY PROGRAM

High School Program - This week with the holiday break, there is no Youth Ministry meeting on Sunday. TEAM members will be gathering with Rich and Valeria to start planning the second half of the year this week. Please pray for the success and the leaders of the program. Our next meeting is next Sunday, January 7, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Michael's. Get the latest information about the Youth Ministry Program at www.stmtym.com You can also reach Rich at the Youth Ministry Office at 908-275-5990 or via email at rich@stmtym.com.

We invite all college students and those who have graduated over the past years of our STMTYM program to a special "Alumni Gathering" this Wednesday night, December 27, from 7:30-9:00 p.m. in the Youth Room to reconnect with past members.

Living Nativity Planned

Once again, the Youth Ministry has made plans to present the "Living Nativity" on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. The animals have been secured, and fencing is being put up at St. Theresa's for the 20th annual Living Nativity. Join us all day on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day as the animals will be out. Members of the High School Youth Ministry Program will be in costume after all the Masses (4pm, 6pm and Midnight at St. Theresa's) on Christmas Eve, reenacting that scene that took place so many years ago in Bethlehem. Don't forget your camera! Again, we'd appreciate your feeding the animals only CARROTS, no apples, etc.

SAMARITAN MINISTRY

SANDWICH PROGRAM - Drop-off sites on Christmas Day are: Mimi & Ed Gabel, 325 Manor Avenue, and Kathy and Don McGee, 14 Hamilton Avenue. Because Christmas is on Monday this year, St. Joseph's will be closed that day. Therefore, sandwiches will be collected on Christmas Day, and delivered on Tuesday, December 26. Please consider giving the gift of nourishment to those in need this Christmas by making a loaf or two of sandwiches for the people at St. Joseph's. Sandwiches will be delivered early Tuesday morning.

MONTHLY FOOD COLLECTION - for Cranford Family Care will be at all Masses this weekend and next. Needs for the month include coffee, tea, hot cocoa, mayonnaise, canned meals such as stew, snacks and paper products, including plates, napkins and cups. Fresh foods are always welcome and can be delivered to CFC, 61 Myrtle Street (276-3530). Your help ant support are always appreciated.

MARCH FOR LIFE ... The Cranford Knights of Columbus will sponsor its annual bus to the 2018 March for Life, Friday, January 19, 2018. Bus will depart at 7:00 AM from St. Michael School parking lot. Cost $20 per adult. More info: 908-276-6189 or march4lifesmc@hotmail.com.

NEW TAX EXEMPTION FOR VETERANS NOTED

The Retired Police/Fire PBA recently reported a new State tax exemption for veterans of U.S. military service (anyone with a DD-214 that shows Honorable Discharge) who are residents of New Jersey. "All Veterans...can get a $3,000 personal tax deduction from their income on STATE taxes for 2017. In order to get this deduction, the Veteran needs to submit a copy of their DD-214 and a form to the N.J. Division of Taxation." For more information, application details and copies of the forms, go to the website of the State of New Jersey Department of the Treasury, Division of Taxation, or call 609-292-6400 ext. 4.

BLOOD DRIVE...will take place on New Year's eve, Sunday, December 31, from 9:30am-2:00pm at the Temple on Walnut Avenue. The Blood Services mobile bus will be on the property. More information: Marty Metzger via email at martymetzger@verizon.net or 908-276-7607.

SUPPLEMENTING RETIREMENT with a Planned Gift:

Are you nearing retirement or are already retired and are looking to make a year-end gift? If so, a Charitable Gift Annuity can be a way to supplement your retirement income and help your parish at the same time. Also, if you are 70-1/2 or older, don't forget about the IRA Charitable Rollover. Let the Archdiocese of Newark help you set up a Charitable Gift Annuity by contacting Theresa Lynch in the Planned Giving Office (973-497-4042) or email at lynchthe@rcan.org.

GIVING BACK TO YOUR PARENTS

Are you looking for the perfect gift for your aging parents that would guarantee income for life? Consider opening up a charitable gift annuity with the Archdiocese of Newark. A charitable gift annuity can provide payments with direct deposit to your aging parents now and a gift to their parish later, all while providing you with both peace of mind and an income tax deduction. If you would like more information on this unique gift contact Theresa Lynch (973-497-4042) or lynchthe@rcan.org.
