"You are not in the flesh...you are in the spirit….."

One of the pastoral activities I greatly enjoy is interviewing our 9th-Grade candidates for Confirmation. Each year Fr. Wilson, Fr. Tom and I meet one-on-one with the candidates, as a step in their preparation to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation in November. The annual cycle of interviews will soon begin, but with me, at least, 'interview' may be a misleading term: I tend to do most of the talking (no surprise), though the candidates are usually patient with me! My main interest in these sessions is to ask the candidates if they believe they are 'ready' to receive the Sacrament. At the ceremony, the bishop asks if candidates have been properly prepared, and while we know whether they have complied with the required procedures, I feel we cannot answer the bishop honestly until we have heard the candidates say, in their own words, that they are ready at this point in their young lives to accept the responsibilities that accompany the Gift of the Holy Spirit. So I point out that, while they had no say in deciding to be baptized, they do have a say when it comes to Confirmation. We certainly hope they will say yes to this final step in their sacramental initiation as Catholics, but I believe these young people should have the opportunity to speak for themselves and not receive Confirmation simply because their families wish them to, or because their friends are doing so. And, while no one expects a 9th-Grader to know everything there is to know about our Catholic Faith, I believe they should know enough by now to say that they want to continue growing in their Catholic identity, and that they should be free to voice questions they may have about what the Church teaches and why. I also share with my interviewees my understanding of how the Holy Spirit operates in our lives, describing a particular experience in my own life that helped me to appreciate how the Spirit acts in cooperation with us, not coercing but enabling us to act in accordance with God's will.

I believe this is the meaning of St. Paul's comments in today's Second Reading. Though obviously we are "in the flesh" as physical beings, we are "not in the flesh" in the sense of being under the domination of 'the flesh', the inherent inclination that seeks to limit our focus to survival and advantage in our earthly life only. The Spirit of God "who raised Christ from the dead" has been breathed into us, giving us a deeper life "in the spirit", opening for us a new horizon for understanding life itself, and enabling our human powers of perception, judgment and action to operate at a level that is truer to our most genuine character as human beings—as children of God. The Spirit accomplishes this with the force not of coercion but of influence, a positive force of persuasion or attraction, inviting and enabling us freely to choose to perceive, judge and act according to God's will, as revealed for us in the teaching and example of Jesus Christ. It is thus in our 'flesh', responsive to the Spirit's promptings, that we are most authentically ourselves. God love you!

- Msgr. Tim Shugrue

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." (Matthew 11:30)

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything; we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion of what He has already given to us.

MEMORIAL DONATIONS - We are accepting Memorial Donations for flowers for the Altar area, the Candles, Bread & Wine used for the Liturgies, and the weekly Sanctuary Candle. TRAVELING? BRING US A SOUVENIR!

We are always interested in seeing how other parishes share communication with their congregations and visitors, so we are announcing a summertime contest: bring home a Bulletin from a Catholic church where you may worship while on vacation or a business trip. Prizes (gift cards at a local ice cream shop) will be awarded in September for Bulletins in the following categories: from the most geographically distant church; from the oldest church building; from the oldest church congregation; from the most architecturally unusual church; and from another church dedicated to St. Michael (a special drawing, if needed from multiple entries). Bring your Bulletin(s) to the Parish Office before Labor Day. Please indicate your name and telephone number so that we can contact you later in the Fall. Let's see how far afield our members go!

SPORTS CAMP

The fourth annual Write on Sports Camp at Roselle Catholic will take place the weeks of July 17-28 (July 17-21 and July 24-28). Students will interview athletes and journalists and attend at least one sporting event as they write stories, blog and make videos to report on their activities. Students / Campers must attend both weeks of camp. For information or a brochure, please contact Joe Skrec at 908-447-5017 or jskrec@rosellecatholic.org.

IS IT TOO CASUAL FOR CHURCH? As you get dressed to go to Church, ask yourself… "Is it appropriate for Mass?" During the summer we all enjoy a more relaxed mood, but let's not go too far when it comes to dressing for Mass. One can be dressed to be comfortable but in our air-conditioned church that should mean something different from what would be better worn at the pool or a picnic, i.e. short shorts, tank tops, T-shirts with inappropriate messages, low-cut or backless dresses, bare midriffs, tight-fitting clothes, etc. It is a matter of respect — for God in His own house and for His People gathered for worship. The standard should be neat, clean and modest, and remember — the children are watching!
